Request for Membership

Please note that membership in CCPA does not qualify you as a certified counsellor, mention of membership is not to be utilized on business cards, on websites, or in other ways intended to advertise a member's qualifications as a counsellor. Should you wish to use a qualification designation from CCPA, you must seek certification, which will permit the use of the letters CCC (Canadian Certified Counsellor) as the appropriate statement about qualifications to practice counselling.

DECLARATION

I confirm that I do not have a criminal record that might prejudice my work as a counsellor and that I have not been dismissed from employment or refused membership in a professional association or registration in counselling or a related field, on the grounds of professional misconduct in Canada or elsewhere. If I cannot so confirm, I have attached details of any conviction/dismissal/refusal to be taken into account when considering this application for membership.

By becoming a member of the Canadian Counselling and Psychotherapy Association (CCPA), I agree that CCPA is authorized to collect, utilize and disclose personal information to CCPA partner organizations solely for the purpose of communicating with me the special arrangements entered into with the CCPA, such as group insurance plans available to members. In addition, I agree that the CCPA may share personal information regarding my activities, including disciplinary action, to the appropriate professional associations, regulatory bodies and/or agencies, both governmental and non-governmental, as required in order to comply with CCPA's mission of protecting the public. All collection and use of my personal information by CCPA will be in accordance with CCPA's Privacy Policy, which is available at <http://www.ccpa-accp.ca/en/privacypolicy/>. By becoming a member, I acknowledge that I have read and agree with the Privacy Policy.

As a member of the Canadian Counselling and Psychotherapy Association I do hereby pledge to uphold the CCPA Code of Ethics at all times.

INSURANCE

We offer several types of insurance: Liability (professional coverage) and Health & Disability (personal coverage), Home and Automobile.

- The Professional Liability insurance is available only to members who comply with the CCPA certification requirements, and to student members who are enrolled in a master's or doctorate counselling program at a recognized institution, for the duration of their practicum only.
- All members may apply for the Health & Disability, Home and Automobile insurance.

WITH YOUR MEMBERSHIP you also receive the following services:

- A subscription to Cognica, our quarterly newsletter. It is dedicated to keeping our members informed about current trends in counselling in Canada. An online version, including past issues, is also available through the Members only section of our Website;
- A subscription to the Canadian Journal of Counselling and Psychotherapy (4 X / yr) at reduced rate ($25). It provides members with up to date information on counselling research, innovative practices, and book reviews;
- Also from the "members only" zone of our CCPA Website:
 - employment offers,
 - past issues of Cognica
 - my profile
 - conference photos
- Reduced registration rate at CCPA annual national conference;
- Our Continuing Education Credit (CEC) system, free to members, to recognize professional development activities and promote continuing education;
- The Canadian Counsellor Certification process, available only to qualified Category A members, to promote professional accountability and visibility. Certification identifies to the public and professional peers those counsellors who have met specific professional standards (see www.ccpa-accp.ca for details). Members who have their CCC can also be part of our Directory of Certified Members;
- An Awards and Bursaries program that recognizes outstanding contributions by members in the areas of research, writing, training, program development and bilingualism;
- and many others.
